RULES ADOPTED

—BY THE—

Board of Education of Hoboken,

FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL FREE LIBRARY.

RULE No. 1 The books, maps, and other articles belonging to the Library, shall be kept in care of the Librarian, at the Library, in School Building, No. 4.

RULE No. 2. The Librarian shall keep a strict record of the names of the persons taking books, the dates when taken, and when returned, and the condition of the books when returned; she shall also keep a written list of all books purchased for the Library, together with the price of each.

RULE No. 3. In the month of August of every year, the Librarian shall make a report of the condition of the Library to the Committee, giving such details as the Committee may require.

RULE No. 4. The Library shall be kept open on Monday of each week, except on holidays, from 3½ P. M., to 5.30 P. M., for the delivery and return of books.

RULE No. 5. All Teachers, Pupils of the Normal and High Schools, and Pupils of the First and Second Classes of the Grammar Schools, and Members and Officers of the Board, shall be allowed to draw books from the Library, under such restrictions as the Board may from time to time establish.

RULE No. 6. Pupils of the Schools, when applying to the Librarian for books, shall present a certificate or card from the Principal of the School to which they belong, stating their names and positions in the School.

RULE No. 7. Dictionaries, encyclopedias and maps or atlases shall not be taken from the Library Rooms.

RULE No. 8. No person shall be allowed to retain a volume longer than two weeks.

RULE No. 9. If a book is seriously damaged or lost, the person to whom it is charged at the time of its injury or disappearance, shall furnish a new book of the same kind for the Library, or pay for the same; and any person refusing to replace or pay for such books shall be deprived of all benefits of the Library.
